Special Recognition Scholarship Nomination

The Uncommon Friends Foundation Special Recognition Scholarship is intended to help further a deserving person's education for one term (semester, quarter, or comparable term). Granting of the award does not guarantee that all expenses for the term will be paid. The amount may be for books or only a portion of the needed funds. The nominee should have financial need, the potential to succeed in school, and demonstrate the following personal traits: a spirit of adventure, a sense of purpose, a commitment to unending personal improvement, and a desire to help others. Submit this nomination form and supporting materials by the deadline on the enclosed application form.
